In the past, wealthy people travelled to distant parts of the world to see great buildings, works of art, learn new languages, experience new cultures, and taste different cuisines. During the Roman Republic, coastal resorts were popular among the rich. Modern tourism can be traced to what was known as the Grand Tour, which was a traditional trip around Europe, especially Germany and Italy, undertaken by mainly upper-class. Mass tourism developed with improvements in technology, which allowed to transport a large number of people in a short period of time to places of leisure interest, so that greater numbers of people could began to enjoy the benefits of their leisure time. B. Seventeen-year-old Tan Luo was an online-game fan and played games at all hours of the day. He didn't have time to study and wasn't able to complete his course at the college. In the end, his parents were very worried and they disconnected their Internet access so Tan couldn't go online.

C. However, this didn't stop him. He knew his neighbours had Internet access, so he used theirs. He was able to connect to their wireless Internet network, or 'wi-fi', and continued playing online games from his own home.

D. The neighbours noticed Tan was using their wi-fi one night. They told him to stop, but he didn't, and so they called the police. In Singapore it's a crime to use a wi-fi network that isn't yours. So, the young wi-fi thief had to go to court.
